Graduate Programs and Courses in the field of Health at the University of Panama:

Duration-----Specialization degree: 9-36 months. Master degree: 18-36 months. Terms are organized into semesters, four month terms and quarter terms. Courses last 16 weeks. Classes are given throughout the 12 months of the year.

Structure-----Specialization degree: a minimum of 24 credits and the Master one: a minimum of 36 credits. The Master degree has two orientations: professional and academic. The last one requires to write and defend a thesis. The academic one may take longer to be completed. One credit is equivalent to 16 hours of theory, or 32 hours of lab/practice activities.

Admission: to possess the Bachelor’s degree or its equivalent.

The University of Panama also offers the Doctoral degree in Biotechnology and other 25 graduate programs in the health sciences. Only programs and courses that have recently started to be delivered are included in this project.
